1.0 POLICY STATEMENT

Tulane University has developed a comprehensive policy to govern temporary posting, advertising, and event signage on the uptown campus. This policy is applicable to yard signs, posters, banners, flyers, large scale installations, window decals, and other forms of marketing/advertising placed by student organizations, university departments and divisions, and third parties. Tulane recognizes and commits to the essential role freedom of expression, thought, and inquiry serve in protecting and upholding our university purpose. The university is committed to creating and sustaining an environment in which we welcome and practice the free exchange of ideas, the critical examination and discussion of them, and respect the dignity and freedom of others.

2.0 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The purpose of this policy is:

- (1) To ensure all temporary campus signage is clear, concise, and appropriate;
- (2) To reduce visual and physical clutter caused by temporary campus signage and installations through the standardization of placement and quantity;
- (3) To advise groups, including student organizations and university departments, on the most effective channels of approved campus marketing; and
- (4) To codify the approval process of various campus marketing channels.

3.0 APPLICABILITY OF THIS POLICY

This policy applies to:

- (1) All University Recognized Student Organizations and,
- (2) Academic schools and departments/centers/ programs
- (3) External organizations wishing to advertise on the Tulane University uptown campus.

Specific institutional initiatives and operations may be exempt from guidelines, as noted below.

4.0 WEBSITE ADDRESS FOR THIS POLICY

Enterprise Risk Services will add the web address of the policy after it is added to the policy library.

5.0 CONTACTS

Identifies persons or departments that should be contacted if there are any questions or concerns regarding the policy.

7.0 DEFINITIONS

Recognized Student Organization (RSO): An autonomous student organization formally recognized by Tulane University. An RSO is formed by currently enrolled students sharing a common goal or interest that have completed the RSO recognition process and agree to adhere to all university policies and procedures.

School: Refers to the ten recognized schools and colleges: Newcomb-Tulane College, School of Architecture, A.B. Freeman School of Business, School of Law, School of Liberal Arts, School of Medicine, School of Professional Advancement, School of Public Health & Tropical Medicine, School of Science & Engineering, School of Social Work.

Departments/Centers/Programs: Refers to organizations within academic schools or operational units.

Institutional Events: For the purposes of this policy, institutional events refer to student Move-in, New Student Orientation, New Orleans Book Festival, Homecoming, Wave Weekend, Crawfest, Commencement, and athletic events unless otherwise noted.

Promotions: A planned set of paid and free advertising designed to promote an event or program.

Opportunities: The medium used to advertise the event or program. Examples include all channels listed in section 8.0.

Event: Events have a discrete start and end time/date, either several hours, a single day, or shorter than one week (7 days). Events are defined as a function or gathering, other than academic classes scheduled as part of the curriculum, that is: 1) held in a university building or outdoor space on the university campus; 2) hosted off-campus by a university Recognized Student Organization, school, or department/center/program; or 3) hosted virtually using university technology. Examples include an open house hosted by a department or an information session organized by an RSO.

Series: A set of related/recurring events or activities with a particular long-term aim. Programs typically last longer than one week. Like an event, a program is 1) held in a university building or outdoor space on the university campus; 2) hosted off-campus by a university Recognized Student Organization, school, or department/center/program; or 3) hosted virtually using university technology. A program may not have a discrete start and end time/date. Examples include a recurring speaker series or the Tulane Shakespeare Festival

Informational Campaign: A set of planned promotions designed to advertise resources or initiatives. Examples include a semester-long promotion of academic resources or a campaign advertising course evaluation

8.0 POLICY AND PROCEDURES

1. APPROVAL

A. Approval Process:

1. All installations and promotional materials must be approved by the Division of Campus Services, unless otherwise stated. The approval process requires a minimum of five business days for review and approval. To receive approval, complete a request form.

B. Content Guidelines:

1. The organization sponsoring the event must have their name and contact information (phone number, email, website, QR code linked to a website) visible on the front of all publicity materials. Promotion for closed events must be by invitation and may not be done through public channels.
2. Proposed artwork must not bully, demean, harass or intimidate groups or individuals.
3. Materials must reflect a responsible attitude towards alcohol.
4. Materials that advertise events where alcohol will be served must not overtly or covertly state or imply an invitation to participate in excessive drinking.

5. Materials may not have any alcoholic beverages listed on them.
6. Materials promoting or advertising an event where alcohol will be served must follow the Tulane University Alcohol Beverage Policy as set forth by the university and approved by the University Senate.
7. The Division of Campus Services reserves the right to reject material deemed inappropriate, fails to comply with university guidelines or if the sponsor fails to abide by this policy.

C. Materials Guidelines:

1. Promotional materials must be printed on specific materials/substrates, including window installations or decals. Campus Services may require certain types of decals (perforated/transparent/etc.) or adhesive be used. Email campusservices@tulane.edu for clarification or questions.

D. Installation Guidelines:

1. Banners, large-scale installations, and exterior building façade/window installations require professional installation. A list of installers can be requested by emailing campusservices@tulane.edu.
2. Any materials found violating this policy will be removed and the sponsoring organization may not be allowed to promote or advertise future events or programs on campus.
3. The university reserves the right to remove materials due to wear and tear or outdated content.

E. External Organizations:

1. Commercial posting of flyers by off-campus businesses, organizations, entities, and individuals is permitted ONLY on the exterior bulletin boards located at PJ's Willow and PJ's Stern.

2. EVENT/PROMOTION LENGTH

A. Installation and Removal Dates

1. All approved promotional materials will be given installation and removal dates as part of the approval process.
2. Events with a duration of less than 7 days: Promotional materials must be removed within 48 business hours after the event.
3. Series of Related/Recurring Events: Promotional materials must be removed within 48 BUSINESS hours of the end time of the final event in the series.

4. Informational Campaigns: Promotional materials must be removed by the date specified by Campus Services.

3. PROMOTIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

A. Distribution/Solicitation - Promotional Materials

1. Distribution (handing out to passers-by) or non-commercial, informational material is allowed only by Recognized Student Organizations, schools, departments/centers/programs, and Tulane affiliates in the Lavin-Bernick Center using reserved booths or tabling along McAlister Place, Berger Family Lawn, and under Stern Hall.
2. Non-Tulane affiliates are not permitted to distribute or solicit on university property.

B. A-Frame Signs

1. The use of exterior A-frame signs is only permitted for the following university departments with prior approval from Campus Services:
 - a. Athletics
 - b. Event Services
 - c. Parking Services
 - d. University Communications
 - e. Student Affairs
2. Exterior A-frame signs are only approved for the following uses:
 - a. In the promotion of campus-wide events as designated by the Office of Institutional Events, Event Services, and/or Athletics.
 - b. As directional signage for campus-wide events including Move-in, New Student Orientation, New Orleans Book Festival, Commencement, Homecoming, Wave Weekend, and athletic events.
 - c. To provide information about parking restrictions as determined by Parking Services.
3. Exterior locations for A-frame signs must be approved by Campus Services, paying special attention to access, egress, and accessibility of campus spaces.
4. A-frames should never be placed in the middle of a sidewalk or impede pedestrian traffic in any way.

5. Building managers may have their own guidelines for the use of A-frame signage inside of buildings; all interior A-frames must be approved by building managers as long as the installation location does not impede building life safety egress routes.

6. A-frame should be put out the day before the event and must be taken down immediately after the event.

C. Banner Spaces

1. Several reservable banner spaces are available on the uptown campus.

2. Only Recognized Student Organizations, schools, departments/centers/programs may reserve a banner location. A banner location may be reserved for up to seven days, including Saturday, Sunday, and university holidays. Only one banner location may be reserved per group on any given day. Banner space reservations must be made through the Tulane EMS platform.

3. When purchasing banners, organizations should request the sign manufacturer use reinforced stitching and grommets and add wind slits to avoid tearing due to wind and rain.

4. There are separate policies governing the hanging/mounting of banners on buildings. Limited university departments and institutional events will also be permitted to use the exterior building banner spaces outlined in section 8, Exterior Building Façade/Window Installations.

5. LBC BANNER SPACES:

a. Reservation process: LBC banner spaces must be reserved through the Tulane EMS platform.

b. Promotion length: A banner location may be reserved for up to seven days, including Saturday, Sunday, and university holidays.

c. Number of available spaces: There are banner locations along the second-floor railings above the LBC Food Court seating area and Qatar Balcony (exterior).

d. Dimensions: Banners may not exceed 3'h x and 8'w.

e. Installation process: Lavin-Bernick Center employees hang and remove banners. Please bring your banner to the Information Desk the day before your banner reservation begins. If you would like to reuse the banner, you must retrieve your banner the day after your reservation ends. Banners left after two days will be discarded.

f. Use of the LBC Gorson Porch banner space and the balcony space outside of Qatar Ballroom in the Lavin-Bernick Center for University Life are reserved for university-wide events only.

6. MCALISTER PLACE BANNER SPACE:

- b. Promotion length: A banner location may be reserved for up to seven days, including Saturday, Sunday, and university holidays.
- c. Number of available spaces: One space is available spanning McAlister Place between McAlister Auditorium and Berger Family Lawn.
- d. Dimensions: Banner should be 4'h x 30'w with wind slits and D-ring grommets in each corner. Banner should be professionally produced.
- e. Installation process: The organization must submit an electronic Interdepartmental Order (E-IT) to Facilities Services to install. Banners should be dropped off at the front desk of Campus Services, Building 85 at least THREE BUSINESS days prior to the scheduled installation date. The organization's name, contact person info and E-IT# MUST be on the outside of the banner.

7. STERN HALL BANNER SPACES:

- a. Reservation process: The Stern Hall banner spaces must be reserved through the Tulane EMS platform.
- b. Promotion length: A banner location may be reserved for up to seven days, including Saturday, Sunday, and university holidays.
- c. Number of available spaces: There are six banner locations under Percival Stern Hall adjacent to PJ's Stern on the academic quad side. These banners spaces are labeled 1 to 6 and are two different sizes.
- d. Dimensions: Banner spaces 1, 3, and 5 should measure 3'w x 3'h. Banner spaces 2, 4, and 6 should measure 7'w x by 3'h.
- e. Installation process: The organization may install on their own in the lower spaces using zip ties to secure the banner. The higher spaces require an installation fee. The organization should submit an electronic Interdepartmental Order (E-IT) to Facilities Services to install on the higher spaces. Banners should be dropped off at the front desk of Campus Services, Building 85 at least THREE BUSINESS days prior to the scheduled installation date. The organization's name, contact person info and E-IT# MUST be on the outside of the banner.

D. Booth Reservations

1. Only Recognized Student Organizations, schools, and departments/centers/programs may request a booth location. Booth spaces are in the Lavin-Bernick Center, on McAlister Place, along the Berger Family Lawn, and in the Stern Hall Breezeway.

a. Reservation process: All reservations must be made through the Tulane EMS platform.

b. Promotion length: A booth location may be reserved up to five days per month per event. Only one booth location may be reserved for an organization on any given day.

2. Booth reservations are not allowed in Pocket Park or Pedersen Lobby. Those areas are reserved for special events, not tabling opportunities. For additional information, visit <https://lbc.tulane.edu/marketing-promotion-0>

E. Bulletin Boards—Interior & Exterior

1. Bulletin boards are located throughout the uptown campus. The organization is responsible for posting and removing their materials according to the bulletin board owner and the guidelines below.

a. Promotion length: Approved materials can be posted no more than two weeks prior to the event. Materials must be removed within 48 hours of the event.

b. Dimensions: Materials may be no larger than 14" w x 22" h.

c. Quantity: Only one poster is allowed per bulletin board.

d. Installation: ONLY use pushpins or tacks. All other adhesives, including staples, tape, and stickers, are strictly prohibited.

e. Publicity must not bully, demean, harass or intimidate groups or individuals.

2. Posting over or removing existing material is prohibited.

3. At no time shall any material be posted or affixed on vehicles, trash cans, trees, sidewalks, support columns, lamp posts, traffic signals, buildings, benches, vending machines, fences, gates, telephone poles, windows, or doors/doorways.

F. Chalking---THERE IS A MORATORIUM ON CHALKING UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE

1. Chalking is reserved only for Recognized Student Organizations, schools, and departments/centers/programs.

2. Chalking is permitted only on concrete or asphalt sidewalks and uncovered walkways. Chalking is not permitted on bricks or pavers or under covered areas.

3. Chalking is not permitted on any campus building or structure, including steps, entryways, porches, patios, posts, pillars, or columns.
4. Only water-soluble chalk is allowed. Use of liquid and spray chalk is not permitted.
5. Any organization found to be in violation of these guidelines will be charged for the labor required to remove the chalk.
6. Any content found to be in violation will be removed immediately.

G. Digital Displays

1. Many schools and buildings maintain their own digital displays. Reach out to those groups individually.
2. Large outdoor LED boards can be reserved through Event Services. Email eventservices@tulane.edu for more information.

If a school or department is interested in adding digital displays to their building or area, a project request form is required to be submitted, <https://campusservices.tulane.edu/content/request-project>

H. Exterior Building Façade/Window Installations/Uplighting

1. This section governs all temporary or permanently affixed installations on the exterior of campus buildings or windows. Campus Services reserves the right to define and approve this promotional channel in all instances, with special attention to historic building guidelines, fire code, ingress/egress, ADA accessibility, and public and pedestrian safety.
 - a. Large- or small-scale exterior banners, including those installed on exterior faces, columns, or balconies.
